THEATRES

CLARA SMITH AND A NIFTY VAUDEVILLE BILL AT S. W.

Clara Smith, the bundle of pep, Columbia record star, who is the feature attraction at the Booker Washington Theatre this week, maintains her reputation as a favorite here. Clara seems to enjoy singing to the W. patrons and they reciprocate by applauding her generously. She is accompanied by a male pianist and presents the following song selections: "Feverish Blues," "Hold My Soul to the Devil," "I Never Miss the Sunshine," and "Keep Your Home Fire Burning." All numbers go over big.

Venable and Wright are the curtain raisers. Miss Venable and the most earnest and best entertainer on the stage. Her singing and dancing this week were splendid. Mr. Wright is a good buck dancer with quick action. They sandwich some comedy in their work and are singing "Rock-a-bye Baby Dams." "At the End of the Road" and close with "Eliza" and a medley of dances including a sensational "Charleston" that calls for an encore.

Shelton and Shellen are black-face artists. This is a male and female team. They use quite a bit of humorous conversation, with a touch of eccentric dances, including acrobatic stunts by the male members. They have a jazz figure with piano and drums, which is a big scream and delays the curtain.

Strong and Strong, another mixed team, open with soft shoe dancing, singing "Carolina Mamma." Their comedy, talk is original and the laugh producer. The woman sings, "You Don't Know My Mind," and the man has a temperamental performance of the dance, both go over big. They close with "When Helens Are Ripe in Date," doing a lively dance.

WHITMAN SISTERS AND THEIR GANG COMING TO THE BOOKER WASHINGTON NEXT WEEK

The Whitman Sisters and "Their Gang" will be the attraction for next week at the Booker Washington Theatre. These versatile players are said to have the highest and best company they have ever piloted. They are making a screaming hit wherever they appear. They have added a number of new players and their chorus is the real hot stuff. In the big company are Doris, Bert and Alice Whitman, Marshall Rodgers, Sam Jackson, Willie Adams, Little Albert, Baby Ernestine, Jimmie Rodgers, Mattie Dorsey and others. There is no question about the type of performance they give. It always includes the very latest in songs and dances put over with an act combination that is rare in such shows.

Ed Lee Coleman, the "Madame" sheik, is in town this week forming a small orchestra to play an Italian engagement in an Eastern city. Coleman says he will accept one or two good propositions, and in the near future will be "singing" a horse and a set of kites in London. He would be pleased to hear from his friends in and out of the profession. Mail will reach him at 411 Market St. Heart or phone office 5853-V.

THE PICTURE THEATRES

THE STAR
Marjorie Day and Clive Brook are the leading stars in "Love's Bargain," which the Picture Theatre features on Saturday. The life of an actress, in and out of the theatre, is an interesting phase of the story, while plenty of drama results from the manipulation of a clever, unscrupulous woman to win the love of a man she has lost.

"The Truth About Women" will be the Sunday special. It is said that the complicated heart affairs of two women and two men, with one woman in particular, the light, outstanding heroine. This woman, first seductively happily married and the mother of a beautiful little girl, finds her domestic dream shattered when another woman attracts her husband. In another drama, "The Sea Hawk," Mary Thurman and David Mervell are the leading stars.

"The Shadow Ranger" is a story of love and thrills in romantic Mexico, the Land of Dark, Bewitching Eyes. An ARTHUR J. MIX Production. With DOROTHY LEE, as Camilla, the Spanish Beauty and GEORGE KIRSTENSON as Hal Carter of the United States Service. A Story of Passion and Excitement, Plots of Thrills.

Also COMEDY AND OTHERS

THE JESTERMAN
"One Year to Live" will be repeated, by request, at the Jewel Theatre this Saturday.

The attraction for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday will be "The Dixie Handicap." The picture, a screen version of a sensational story of Southern romance and race tracks, is one of the most thrilling films seen in a long time. It tells how a young man, picked up on the verge of imprisonment, is released by the intervention of the love of the youth for the judge's daughter. For excitement, there are a number of horse races, some being at county fairs. The cast includes Frank Keenan, Claire Windsor, Lloyd Hughes, John Salsopoli, Otto Harlan and many others.

Kathryn Williams and Tyrone Power will be seen in "The Picture of Dorian Gray" on Wednesday. It is the story of an unloved wife in the slums of New York City. "The Picture of Dorian Gray" will be presented at the Picture Theatre on Thursday and Friday. This is a lavish Arabian night film.

If an individual or group never does certain things for itself, it will never learn how to do them and reg-seemingly remain young and dependent.

As long as the group is weak and dependent it is not dangerous.
As far as I know, Mr. Duke does not belong to that group of white Americans who hold the reins of the educational program for the Negroes. His gift seems to be a genuine desire to help improve the lot of people who he knows well and among whom he has lived for many years. And as for some others who are very anxious to do something for the Negro, Mr. McKim and Dr. Hinkle tell the story.

There seems the worst denominator of crime, it has more free entrance in friendship and literature.

He says you are right; after that

- All that glitters is not gold. - every gift is not genuine philanthropy.
Sometimes that which poses as phil-be sure you have convinced your friends you are right; then go ahead.

God made the country and man cut the trees off it.
